

Happy Birthday! Remember how terrible we all felt when we turned 40? (I wonder why that bothered us so much -- we were still so young)! I'm pretending ~~on~~ I will be turning 56 in May, so then 46 will sound great!

There is going to be a wonderful opera on the Friday before you leave with visiting Russian stars - War and Peace. Should I get tickets for the three of us?

Mike gets home  from Taiwan tomorrow and we are going to

AMERICAN GREETINGS

Mom & Dad's for Easter. As soon as my course is over an early May I'm going to search out good hiking trails for us to go on when you're here.

Bye,
Love,
Mary
